ITEM NO. (5): Housing Accessibility and Affordability

Carey Stone provided some background information to assist the Commissioners in better understanding the Mayor's Executive Directive 13, which is titled "Support for Affordable Housing Development." The Directive stated that the Mayor aims to have 100,000 new housing units by 2010 and mentions some prioritizing of case processing for projects that contribute to the new construction or rehabilitation of housing developments with certain percentages of affordable units. DOD had been informed that the Mayor had made a separate announcement that his goal is for 15 thousand of these new units are to be affordable, which would be almost double the City's current capacity.
